

Your Rod and Staff

Yeah, though I walk through the shadowed land,
Through the valley where darkness takes its stand,
I will fear no evil, I won't lose my breath,
For You are beside me in the shadow of death.

Your rod and Your staff, they guide my way,
They hold me close when I start to stray.
In every step, Your love's my light,
You comfort my soul in the deepest night.

You set a table where my enemies see,
You pour out oil, and it's covering me.
My cup overflows, in Your goodness I rest,
Your mercy surrounds me, my soul is blessed.

Your rod and Your staff, they guide my way,
They hold me close when I start to stray.
In every step, Your love's my light,
You comfort my soul in the deepest night.

Surely Your goodness will follow me near,
Your house is my dwelling, my refuge from fear.
Forever I'll walk in the strength of Your name,
Yesterday, tomorrow, forever the same.

Your rod and Your staff, they guide my way,
They hold me close when I start to stray.
In every step, Your love's my light,
You comfort my soul in the deepest night.

Even in shadows, I will not hide,
Your Spirit within is my constant guide.
Mountains may tremble, oceans may roar,
But You are my peace, my forevermore.

Your rod and Your staff, they guide my way,
They hold me close when I start to stray.
In every step, Your love's my light,
You comfort my soul in the deepest night.

Kingdom State of Mind

I declared, "Behold, I've come to do Your will,"
Your purpose within me I'm eager to fulfill.
It's inscribed of me in the volume of Your book,
I walk in obedience
No second look.

This is a Kingdom state of mind,
My steps in sync, Spirit-aligned.
I rise each day with heaven's glow,
My only mission: to follow Your flow.

Not shaped by worldly ways,
I'm set apart to bring You praise.
Your will, not mine, I seek to find
I move in a Kingdom state of mind.

I said, "Behold, I've come to do Your will,"
Your purpose in me I'm ready to fulfill.
It's written of me in the volume of Your book,
I walk in obedience
No second look.

This is a Kingdom state of mind,
My steps in sync, Spirit-aligned.
I rise each day with heaven's view,
My only mission is to follow You.

Not conformed to worldly ways,
I'm set apart to bring You praise.
Your will, not mine, I choose to find
I move in a Kingdom state of mind.

Content in every Season

When blessings flow or rivers run dry,
When questions arise and answers seem to hide,
I hold my peace, I won't fall into despair
For He is always beside me, the One who truly cares.

I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.
Through every test and quiet reason,
Grace surrounds me abundantly.
I don't need signs, I don't need proof
I know His presence is my truth.
I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.

When doors stay closed or pathways end,
When I can't seem to see around the bend,
I lean on His truth, I breathe in His grace,
The Everlasting Constant, He keeps His place.

I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.
Through every test and quiet reason,
Grace surrounds me abundantly.
I don't need signs, I don't need proof
I know His presence is my truth.
I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.

Storm or still, He holds my hand,
I rise and walk, I trust, I stand.
There's no need to rush, no need to flee
I'm rooted where He has planted me.

I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.
Through every test and quiet reason,
Grace surrounds me abundantly.
I don't need signs, I don't need proof
I know His presence is my truth.
I am content in every season,
Knowing God is here with me.

Yes... God is here with me.
He is here with me

Psalm against fear

Though I walk through the shadow,
I will not be afraid,
Your power surrounds me,
Your promise is made.
Your rod and Your staff
keep my spirit secure,
With You by my side,
I am safe, I am sure.

Though I walk through the shadow,
I will not be afraid,
Your power surrounds me,
Your promise is made.
Your rod and Your staff
keep my spirit secure,
With You by my side,
I am safe, I am sure.

Though I walk through the shadow,

keep my spirit secure,
With You by my side,
I am safe, I am sure.

Peace of God

When the morning breaks
and the world begins its turning,
I hear a whisper deep within my soul still yearning.
It is the peace of God that covers every season,
Guarding my heart in Christ, beyond all earthly reason.

Peace that rises higher than the mind can comprehend,
Flowing like a river that will never find its end.
Christ has set a shelter where my weary thoughts may stay,
Keeping me in mercy as He guides me on His way.

Through the restless night when the shadows close around me,
Still His gentle hand with a quiet love has found me.
Nothing can disturb what His Spirit has defended,
Peace that holds my mind until the storm has ended.

Peace that rises higher than the mind can comprehend,
Flowing like a river that will never find its end.
Christ has set a shelter where my weary thoughts may stay,
Keeping me in mercy as He guides me on His way.

More than words can tell, more than reason ever captures,
This is heaven's gift, this unbroken chain of raptures.
Every breath I take is a witness to His keeping,
Peace of God, eternal, in my soul forever deepening.

Peace that rises higher than the mind can comprehend,
Flowing like a river that will never find its end.
Christ has set a shelter where my weary thoughts may stay,
Keeping me in mercy as He guides me on His way.

Peace of God

New Beginnings

Forget the shadows of yesterday,
release the weight of the things long gone.

A dawn is rising, bright and tender,
a holy song moving us along.

The Lord is weaving new beginnings,
a gentle stream through the heart made dry.

Can you not feel it? life returning,
a hidden spring under desert sky.

He makes a way through the wilderness,
He pours out rivers where none have flown.

Love in the barren ground awakens,
a garden blooms where His seeds are sown.

No need to cling to the silent ruins,
the former days have no hold on me.
For now the Spirit breathes His promise,
a future vast as the endless sea.

The past is fading like smoke behind me,
the present glows with a tender flame.
The Lord is painting grace around me,
a canvas new in His holy Name.

Oh, do you see it rising now?
The streams are singing in the sand.
The thirsty ground receives its vow,
fulfilled by His unchanging hand.

He makes a way through the wilderness,
He pours out rivers where none have flown.

Love in the barren ground awakens,
a garden blooms where His seeds are sown.
